COMMON SENSE

Lead most intelligent people to use only medicines of known composition. Therefore it is that Dr. Pierce's medicines, the makers of which print every ingredient entering into them upon the bottle wrapper and attest its correctness under oath, are daily giving in favor. The composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines is open to everybody. Dr. Pierce being desirous of having the search light of investigation turned fully upon his formulae, being confident that the better the composition of these medicines is known the more will their great curative merits be recognized. Being wholly made of the active medicinal principles extracted from natural forest roots, by exact processes original with Dr. Pierce, and without the use of a drop of alcohol, triple-refined and chemically pure glycerine being used instead in extracting and preserving the curative virtues residing in the roots employed, these medicines are entirely free from the objection of doing harm by creating an appetite for either alcoholic beverages or habit-forming drugs. Examine the formula on their bottle wrappers—the same as sworn to by Dr. Pierce, and you will find that his "Golden Medical Discovery," the great blood-purifier, stomach tonic and bowel regulator—the medicine which, while not recommended to cure consumption in its advanced stages (no medicine will do that) yet does cure all those catarrhal conditions of head and throat, weak stomach, torpid liver and bronchial troubles, weak lungs and hang-over coughs, which, if neglected or badly treated lead up to and finally terminate in consumption. Take the "Golden Medical Discovery" in time and it is not likely to disappoint you if only you give it a thorough and fair trial. Don't expect miracles. It won't do supernatural things. You must exercise your patience and persevere in its use for a reasonable length of time to get its full benefits. The ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed have the unqualified endorsement of scores of medical leaders—better than any amount of lay, or non-professional, testimonials. They are not given away to be experimented with but are sold by all dealers in medicines at reasonable prices.

BOY SWEEPED TO DEATH.

One boy was swept to death and a little girl had a narrow escape from a similar fate Saturday in an ice flood which has changed the usual placid river of Connecticut to raging torrent, menced travel on railroads and forced the breaking up of the ice jams by the use of dynamite.
For more than 18 miles Albert Pakulate, 12 years old, son of August Pakulate, of Waterbury, rode on an ice floe on the Naugatuck river, while 1,000 persons, including his mother, whom he tried to encourage by waving his hand, tried to rescue him from his peril.
The boy was playing with the ice in a cove, when his foot slipped and he fell on the ice just as a large cake became detached and was swept out in the current.
A boat could not have lived a second in the mass of floes, logs and debris, and the only chance was that the floe on which the boy was taking the long ride would be caught by one of the swirling eddies and throw near one of the banks, where there were volunteers ready to take any risk to save him. Before that moment came he was caught in the undertow near Ansonia, an undertow which engulfed logs and other refuse and did not throw them to the surface for a distance of 2,000 feet.
Sybil Danham, 6 years old, ventured on an ice floe washed on the land by the Farmington river, near Robertville, to get a pet dog. Floating to the shore, she was caught and it was a few seconds before she could get out of the water, carrying the little girl along with her.
A score of persons saw the girl's peril and ran along the bank trying to encourage her. After an eighth of a mile the floe lodged against a jam, and the ice, 18 inches thick, formed a bridge. One of the men crept out and caught the little one by the arm.
"Take my doggie, too," she cried out, and the man carried the dog until it could find its way to the shore.
Sufferers who say they have tried everything without benefit are the people we are looking for. We want them to know from glad experience that Ely's Cream Balm will conquer Cold in the Head, Hay Fever, and obstructed form of Nasal Catarrh. This remedy acts directly on the inflamed, sensitive membrane. Cleansing, soothing and healing. One trial will convince you of its healing power. Price 50c. All druggists, or mailed by Ely Bros., 50 Warren St., New York.

FLOODS IN PARIS.

The floods last night in Paris exceeded all records, and are fast assuming the proportions of a national disaster. In the north, east and west hundreds are homeless and ruined. Although it is impossible at the present time to estimate the damage, it will be very great. The rise in the waters continued during all of yesterday.
The torrent almost touched the arches of the beautiful bridges, threatening the destruction of those works of art.
The sharp cold of Saturday led to the hope of abatement of the floods, but yesterday in the morning a heavy snow set in, turning in the afternoon to rain. This aggravated the situation and caused great suffering to the victims.
A dispatch from Chalons-sur-Marne says that a huge volume of water is sweeping down stream toward Paris.
A serious accident occurred last night. One of the water mains, serving five of the most populous arrondissements in the south and east of Paris, burst, and these districts are without water. It is feared the city will be in a like condition very soon, as the flood is invading the pumping-stations. The compressed air factory, which supplies the elevators in Paris, has also been forced to shut down.
One of the great engines, which pump the sewerage in the eastern section of Paris, broke down on account of the flood, and as a result the sewers threaten to overflow the streets. Several quarters are without electric light and all the trolley lines in the eastern suburbs are out of commission.

MURDER MYSTERY SOLVED.

James Hall, the naval prisoner on the Southern, at the Portsmouth, N. Y., navy yard, under sentence for fraudulent enlistment, has made a complete confession that he murdered 17-year-old Anna Catharine Schumacher in the Holy Sepulcher Cemetery, in Rochester, N. Y., August 7, thus ending the mystery of the girl's death. He says, however, that the killing of the girl was an accident.
In his confession Hall says he was beating his way about the country last summer and in August 7 he was in Rochester, N. Y., intending to sleep in the cemetery. He saw Anna Schumacher enter the cemetery in the afternoon with a bouquet of flowers for her mother's grave, and followed her. She tried to run, but he caught her and stifled her cries. After a desperate fight, he says, he tried to stifle her, but killed her instead.

STRUCK BY A TRAIN.

Thomas McTiernan and James Doherty are dead and Oleyton Jackson is dying at a hospital in Utica, N. Y., as the result of an accident on the northern outskirts of Utica early yesterday, in which the three men, while walking along the railroad track, were run down by a locomotive on the Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg Railroad.
Doherty was killed instantly. McTiernan was hurled fifty feet and his skull was crushed, and Jackson had both his legs severed at the knee.
Jackson removed the laces from his shoes and tied them around the stumps of his legs in an effort to check the flow of blood. He then rolled over and over in the snow for a third of a mile to a railroad signal shanty, where he found a man, to whom he related the circumstances of the accident. Aid was summoned, and Jackson and McTiernan were rushed to a hospital, where McTiernan died yesterday without regaining consciousness.
The doctors say Jackson will hardly survive.
